

PARTNERS IN FINERY

It's clear from the first step into the New York City atelier of Faraone Mennella by R.F.M.A.S. that you've entered a world of beauty. Display cases are filled to the brim with eye-catching jewelry, including necklaces in candy-colored cabochons and wide cuffs in lustrous gold. The designers—Amedeo Scognamiglio and Roberto Faraone Mennella (below, from left), childhood friends from Naples, Italy—have taken the brand a long way since its founding, in 2001, now highlighting many a red-carpet moment. Two years ago the duo widened its reach with a sterling-silver line, L'una by R.F.M.A.S., offering more-accessible prices. The newest ventures are Villa by R.F.M.A.S., a collection of ceramic pieces handmade by master artisans in Naples, and Fiori by R.F.M.A.S., a flower company. Still to come, a candle line. 5 East 57th Street, 7th Floor; 212-752-5990.

Villa by R.F.M.A.S. Italian hand-painted porcelain cheese plate ($225), at Bergdorf Goodman, NYC. 800-558-1855.

18k-gold and red-tourmaline cuff (top; $14,100) and 18k-gold and multistone cuff ($40,530), at Saks Fifth Avenue, 877-551-SAKS.

L'una by R.F.M.A.S. sterling-silver and enamel rings ($175 each), hsn.com.

One-of-a-kind 18k-gold, diamond, aquamarine and rubellite necklace ($50,000), at Saks Fifth Avenue, 877-551-SAKS.

One-of-a-kind 18k-white-gold, diamond and aquamarine earrings ($70,000), at Saks Fifth Avenue, 877-551-SAKS.

